Timbermill Court

Timbermill Court’s very name hints at the history of the place, built on the site of a former sawmill in the centre of Fordingbridge, beside the water meadows of the River Avon. The cottages and apartments are set around a secluded courtyard with delightful water gardens and look over many acres of open countryside.

Being situated in the town centre, the estate is close to Fordingbridge’s bustling high street with its wide range of shops, cafes and leisure activities. The town has an imposing bridge spanning the Avon with a striking seven arch structure and offers charming riverside walks along the Avon Valley path. Also, Fordingbridge’s position as the northern gateway to the New Forest mean that opportunities for walking, cycling and spotting wildlife abound. Nearby sights include Breamore House, an Elizabethan manor house set in acres of its own beautiful parkland, and the mosaics and courtyard ruins at Rockbourne Roman Villa.

Cognatum Estates Limited provides the services and amenities shown below together with the maintenance, repair and insurance of the buildings, personal alarms, window cleaning and refuse collection. The cost of providing these services is shared equally between all properties
