OLD FARM GARDENS DEVELOPMENT

CONSTRUCTION has started on this exclusive residential development in Moira by developer Willowstone Developments. The site of a former farming garden, located on the edge of the National Forest & Hicks Lodge will be turned into six quality homes all offering something a little different. The attractive development is situated within a private cul-de-sac and will include a mixture of four and five bedroomed detached family homes with garaging and off-road parking. Willowstone Developments said: "Our passion is building homes not houses, with a view of exceeding our clients expectations. Interest in Old Farm Gardens has already been very strong, this is a great location and one that we're really excited and proud to offer to the open market. There's easy access to country parks, nature walks, cycle walks and even boat trips at the Moira Furnace Museum. "What makes Willowstone Developments different is the extra attention to detail and a family owned developer, we apply a traditional craftsman approach to our developments ensuring our buyers get the best product available with a unique interior style. Offering a array of knowledge as a developer ensures the final results are finished to a high standard within timescales. Old Farm Gardens is currently under-construction with Plot 1 and 2 ready NOW!!
