The Old Nick, 124 The Common, Crich DE4 5BW
Offers Around £525,000

Located in the popular village of Crich is this beautiful and impressive late Victorian detached stone built property. The Old Nick, formerly the village police house, retains many original features and benefits from high ceilings, spacious rooms and occupies a delightful corner plot with far reaching views of the surrounding countryside. The accommodation itself briefly comprises spacious entrance hallway, guest cloakroom, two reception rooms, utility room, three double bedrooms and a well appointed bathroom with four piece suite. The rear extension houses a stunning open plan living kitchen with direct access onto the rear garden. This is of a good size, fully enclosed and, as well as the lawned area, incorporates a delightful paved patio, perfect for al fresco dining and entertaining. The gravelled driveway to the front and side provides ample off road parking and leads to the detached garage. The property benefits from gas central heating, uPVC double glazing and is well presented throughout. Viewing Highly Recommended.
