A photograph of a two-story brick house with a grey tiled roof and a central chimney. The house has a white front door with a small arched window and a white-framed bay window to its right. There are several other windows with white frames. A set of stone steps leads up to the front door, flanked by a brick wall and a metal handrail. To the left of the steps is a large, dense green hedge. To the right of the steps are two black bins. The house is situated on a street with a paved sidewalk and a grassy area in front. Other houses are visible on either side.
