Kings Heath

Offers Around £275,000

Description

This traditional terraced house is situated in this road of similar properties ideally placed within the sought after suburb of Kings Heath.

Close to well regarded schools including King Edward Camp Hill Grammar school with the benefit of local shops at the junction on both Kings Road and the High Street itself, the property benefits from being within walking distance of Kings Heath High street where there is a variety of eclectic shops, restaurants and hostelrys all along the Alcester Road. There is access also via the main A435 to junction 3 of the M42 motorway (via the Hollywood bypass) forming part of the midlands motorway network with access to the M5, M6, and M40.

There are railway stations at Yardley Wood, Kings Norton and soon to be Kings Heath offering commuter services between Birmingham and Stratford upon Avon and local bus services provide access to the City of Birmingham and the surrounding suburbs.

An ideal location therefore for this mid terraced house which is set back from the road behind a small foregarden, a paved pathway leads to a front door which opens to the porch with further door into the large lounge diner with log burner, windows to the front and rear and door into the inner hallway with a turned staircase to the first floor accommodation and door into the modern kitchen diner.

On the first floor landing there are doors to two double bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

The rear garden has a paved courtyard patio leading to a further patio with artificial lawn, timber shed and fencing to boundaries.
