St. Albans Avenue, W4

An immaculately presented four bedroom Victorian family home, tastefully modernised within the past three years to seamlessly blend timeless period features with contemporary comfort.

Arranged over three floors, the ground floor provides the receiving hallway, double front reception room with gas fire and ground floor WC. The extended rear kitchen and dining room leads onto the well maintained garden. The first floor offers two spacious bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, with the second bedroom enjoying direct access to a private terrace. To the top floor there are two further bedrooms and family bathroom, perfect for guests or flexible family living.

St. Albans Avenue is a much sought-after residential road on the borders of Bedford Park and within a short walk of Turnham Green Terrace and Chiswick High Road's wide range of shops, bars, cafés and restaurants. Turnham Green station (District line) is also an easy walk away.
