Dukes Avenue, W4

A beautifully presented five bedroom semi-detached home with a large west-facing garden in a very quiet and highly desirable location. The house has been refurbished to a superb standard and offers over 2,700 square foot of space and period features.

The ground floor offers a double reception leading to the open plan, eat-in kitchen/dining room with a conservatory providing an abundance of light. Doors lead onto the west facing, immaculate rear garden.

The property has a further utility room, cloakroom and formal reception room to the front of the house. Upstairs has five double bedrooms set over two floors; one with an en suite shower room and two further family bathrooms.

On the top floor there is the master bedroom with a balcony overlooking the rear of the property. The master has a large and well-appointed dressing room with en suite bathroom and separate shower.

Dukes Avenue is perfectly located near the local shops, restaurants and bars along Chiswick High Road, Turnham Green tube station and Chiswick House and Grounds.
