Chiswick Quay, London, W4

A four bedroom house located within a tranquil development of town houses surrounding a marina on the River Thames with a private driveway and a roof terrace with river views.

The house is arranged over four floors with a garage at ground floor level which is divided into three parts with a utility room and storage area making it ideal space for an in-house gym.

The split-level reception room on the first floor has views across the garden and into the marina and leads to an eat-in kitchen with it's own river view.

There are four double bedrooms. The master has it's own dressing room, en suite shower room and private roof terrace which has the best view in the house.

Close to transport links with Chiswick mainline station under a quarter of a mile away and there is also access to the A4/M4 motorways.
