Delamere Road, W5

A spacious five/six bedroom, four bathroom semi-detached family home with versatile living accommodation that has been significantly extended and modernised by the current owners. There is a large garden and additional outbuilding, perfect as a home office or gym.

To the ground floor the property has been significantly extended, providing a through reception room leading into an extended dining room. There is a large kitchen with separate pantry and central island unit. There are also two additional ground floor rooms, currently configured as office and additional bedroom if required, along with separate w.c. To the first floor the property has been double storey extended at the rear with a principal suite, walk in wardrobe and en-suite bathroom. There are four more bedrooms and two more bathrooms between the first floor and the loft converted second floor. To the front there is off street parking for multiple cars and a large garden to the rear. An outbuilding has been added with two additional independent rooms, along with shower facilities, perfect for a home gym.

Delamere Road is close to the green space of Ealing Common, along with its tube Station (District Line and Piccadilly Line). Ealing Broadway with the new Elizabeth Line, District Line, Central Line and National Rail is just under a mile away.
