Chatsworth Road, W5

This immaculate double fronted detached home located in the prestigious Haymills Estate has been fully reconstructed fifteen years ago to provide both a fantastic blend of modern architecture and classic design. Offering over 3300sqft of versatile living space this multi generational home benefits from a full lift and internal garage, allowing for a forever family home.

The heart of the home leads into a spacious open-plan living. Full of natural light, this space flows effortlessly from front to back, creating a seamless environment for everyday living and entertaining. In the centre of the room, the passenger lift discreetly fits into the room, allowing for access to all floors. To the rear, a well-equipped kitchen faces onto the south-facing garden.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three generous bedrooms, all served by modern en-suites. To the rear, the principle bedroom benefits from built in storage and over looks the peaceful garden.

The top floor features two additional double bedrooms and a family bathroom, perfect for guests, older children, or use as a home office.
