Hanworth Road, TW12

The ground floor has a large double reception room, separate dining room, cloak room and kitchen which overlooks the garden. We think a rear full width extension creating that large eat in family/kitchen/dinning room would be an amazing addition to to the property.

Upstairs are four bedrooms, a very spacious modern fitted bathroom and a separate shower room. From this floor there is further potential to extend over the garage and into the loft.

Outside to the rear is an enormous garden with a large shed. If you work from home there is plenty of space for a home office. To the front of the house are electric gates leading onto the resin driveway which provide parking for several cars, garage and side access to to the garden.
