This is such a landmark house. A grand Victorian four bedroom family home, spacious and stylish throughout, with off street parking and a private garden. It's one that you really need to come and have a look at!

Presented in immaculate condition throughout, the home features a striking open-plan kitchen/breakfast room with a central island, granite work surfaces, and integrated Miele appliances. It also has a utility room which houses a washer, a dryer and a Belfast sink. The ground floor boasts a generous family room, a large reception room and WC. There is also a stunning wine cellar downstairs.

On the first floor, the luxurious principal bedroom includes fitted wardrobes and a beautifully appointed en-suite with a freestanding bath and walk-in shower. Three further double bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom with bath and separate walk-in shower complete the first floor. Outside, the private rear garden includes a pretty, patio area. Off-street parking is accessed via remote-controlled electric gates and an Ohme EV charger offering convenience and peace of mind.

Creek Road is moments from Hampton Court railway station, the River Thames, and the shops, bars and restaurants of Hampton Court and East Molesey are all a short stroll away.
