Myrtle Road, TW12

The ground floor opens with a welcoming reception room, where a bay window, bespoke shelving and a feature fireplace create a bright and inviting space, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

To the rear, the extended kitchen/dining room forms the heart of the home. Designed with wooden worktops and integrated appliances, it balances style with practicality. Bi-folding doors open onto the garden, ideal for al fresco dining, summer gatherings or relaxed evenings.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, both filled with natural light, plus a versatile single bedroom, perfect as a nursery, office or dressing room. A sleek modern bathroom completes this floor. The loft conversion provides a superb principal suite. The garden is private and leafy, with a mix of lawn and patio framed by mature planting.
