Warwick Close, TW12

A large detached five bedroom family home presented in excellent condition with the benefit of a very generous double garage and parking, located in this peaceful cul de sac.

At just under 2500 sqft, this spacious house offers fantastic accommodation. The ground floor has a large double reception room with modern fireplace, a separate formal dining room, generous kitchen which opens on to a further fantastic reception over looking the garden, utility and a separate study. There is also a downstairs W/C and internal access to the double garage.

The spacious first floor has a generous landing leading to five double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The principal bedroom has a large en-suite bathroom, built in wardrobes and fantastic views towards Bushy Park. Bedroom two also has a large walk in wardrobe which could be converted in the future to create a further bathroom (STP).

Externally, the rear garden is west facing and is as wide as it is long and feels very private. At the front of the house there is off street parking for three cars.

Warwick Close is located opposite Bushy Park and Hampton open air pool. Easy walking distance to both Hampton Hill High Street with its shops and restaurants and Hampton Village with access to the train station.
