Fairfield Road, KT1

The ground floor offers a balance of period character and modern comfort with two reception rooms. To the front, the main sitting room is full of style, centred around a striking fireplace and has built in alcove storage. There is a square bay window with a custom built window seat and the storage beneath adds practicality. The second reception room, also rich in original features, includes a fireplace with a fitted log burner and serves as a versatile space currently used as a home study.

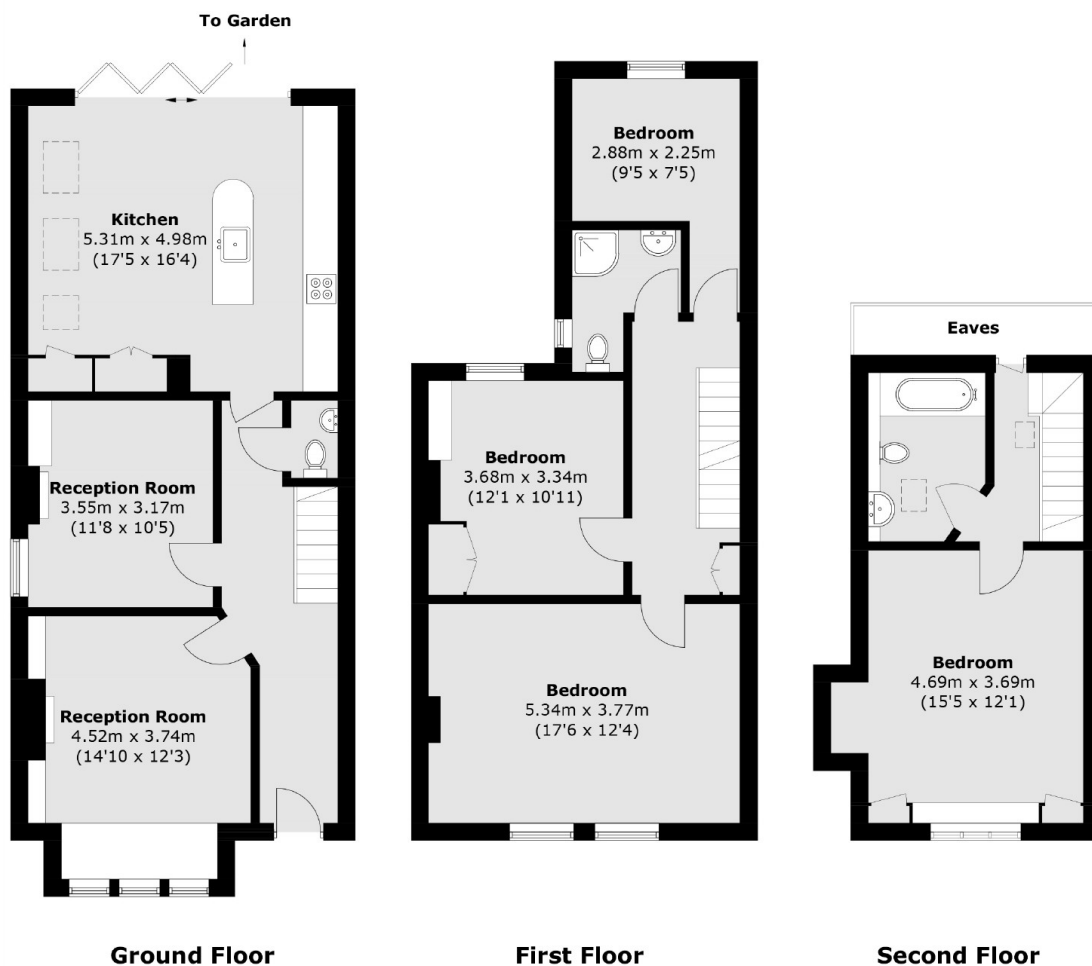

To the rear lies a beautifully designed kitchen/dining room, the true heart of the home. Finished to a high standard, featuring Norwegian granite work surfaces, quality fittings and generous space for family dining and entertaining. Bi-folding doors span the rear wall, opening out onto the garden and inviting the outdoors in. Completing the ground floor is a convenient and stylish guest WC.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, two double and one generous single. The front principal bedroom has beautiful views across the Park. There is also the main family bathroom located on the same level. On the top floor is the fourth bedroom, another great double room with Park views and benefits from an en suite bathroom and eves storage.

Outside to the front, there is off-street parking for three cars and to the rear is the private, easily maintained garden with the added benefit of an artificial lawn for low maintenance and all to enjoy.
