About the property

An exceptional four bedroom detached Victorian villa, completely rebuilt and extended to the side, rear and loft to create a brand new home, whilst retaining the original period features.

The ground floor features an open plan layout, with two sitting areas, a dining space and a stunning kitchen equipped with Dekton worktops all set against a backdrop of herringbone oak flooring. This home has been designed with meticulous care, from acoustic insulation and smart home technology, providing the home with comfort and style. A south facing garden completes the property, ideal for hosting family and friends.

Shortlands Road is a quiet residential street located in North Kingston. The area is renowned for its excellent local schools and is nearby to Kingston town centre.
