

Elm Road, KT2

£695,000

Nestled in sought after North Kingston, this attractive, two bedroom, semi-detached Victorian home blends period charm with exciting potential and is offered with no onward chain. The house is rich in character, including original fireplaces in both bedrooms, the front reception room and the kitchen. The house is well maintained yet offers scope to make it your own, lending itself perfectly to updating or extending to the rear and into the loft, as many neighbouring homes have.

The house is located on Elm Road, a popular road in North Kingston and just over 500 yards to the gates of Richmond Park. Venture just over half a mile and you could be in Kingston town centre, Norbiton Station or on the banks of the River Thames.
