Wadbrook Street, KT1

A unique and spectacular penthouse apartment within the prestigious Charter Quay development, enjoying exceptional, uninterrupted views across the River Thames, Home Park and beyond. Offering just under 1,700 sq.ft, this rarely available home further benefits from a concierge service, residents' gymnasium, attractive communal gardens, an elevated residents' roof terrace and two allocated parking spaces.

Charter Quay is a riverside development with access via the secure underground car park lift or pedestrian entrance, where you are welcomed by the concierge. This larger than average apartment features two spacious reception rooms, a double aspect living room to the front with stunning river views and balcony access. There is also a double aspect dining room at the rear with its own balcony overlooking Kingston town centre. The kitchen/breakfast room also enjoys access to the third private balcony. All three bedrooms are doubles, two with en suite bathrooms and the principal bedroom includes a walk in wardrobe.

Situated in the heart of Kingston, this riverside development offers the best of both waterside and town centre living. Residents are within easy reach of Kingston's shops, cafes, riverside restaurants, the River Thames and some of the area's most sought after schools and colleges.
