Winchester Walk, SW15

A beautifully arranged two bedroom, two bathroom townhouse set across four floors, offering over 1,230 sq ft of accommodation. The lower ground floor features a bright and spacious kitchen/dining room with modern integrated appliances, and a delightful dining space with large windows flooding the room with natural light from the external courtyard.

On the ground floor, there is a generous reception room with excellent entertaining space. The first floor hosts a well-proportioned double bedroom with fitted storage and bathroom, while the top floor benefits from a further double bedroom with en-suite shower room and eaves storage. Finished with neutral décor throughout, skylights, and ample built-in storage, this home is both stylish and practical.

Winchester Walk is a highly sought-after residential development in East Putney, within easy reach of the open spaces of Putney Heath, Wandsworth Park and the riverside walks along the River Thames. The property is well served by excellent transport links, with Putney mainline station and East Putney Underground (District Line) only minutes away, as well as regular bus routes into Central London. The area also benefits from a fantastic selection of local shops, cafés, restaurants, and schools, making it an ideal home for professionals and families alike.
