This beautifully presented Grade II listed home is ideally positioned just moments from Richmond Green and within easy reach of Richmond Station. Combining period elegance with generous living space, it offers the perfect balance of charm, comfort, and convenience.

The property is full of character, featuring high ceilings, wooden floors, elegant fireplaces, and a graceful staircase. Large sash windows flood the rooms with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere throughout. Arranged over four floors, the accommodation includes three spacious reception rooms ideal for both formal entertaining and relaxed family living, five bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a well-equipped eat-in kitchen with an adjoining utility room. To the rear, a private west-facing garden provides a peaceful outdoor space, while the property also benefits from off-street parking and residents' parking. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a home of remarkable charm and scale in one of Richmond's most desirable central locations.

In the heart of Richmond, this historic setting was once the jousting ground of Henry VIII's Tudor Palace, adding a unique sense of heritage and prestige to the location. Richmond town centre lies quite literally on your doorstep, offering an exceptional selection of boutiques, cafés, restaurants, and everyday amenities.
