Cornerstone House is a detached six bedroom house offering space and modern interior, with three large reception rooms, eat-in kitchen, two modern bathrooms and an impressive landscaped garden this house caters for all.

A wonderful family home finished to a great standard but still retaining much of its character. There is also wooden flooring throughout and neutral decor.

It has generous rooms and great living space including a front reception room with feature fireplace, separate reception room with doors leading onto the garden.

The huge garden is one of the house's many selling points; a fantastic sized garden with all day sun, so ideal for barbeques, summer gatherings and playing with the children.

In a wonderful and family friendly location; with Richmond Park on your doorstep this area is perfect for a family who enjoy the great outdoors whilst keeping within easy reach of Richmond and Kingston town centres.
