Lauderdale Drive, TW10

A wonderful family home finished to a great standard but still retaining much of its character. There is also wooden flooring throughout and neutral decor.

It has generous rooms and great living space including a front reception room with feature fireplace, separate reception room with doors leading onto the garden.

The large garden is one of the house's many selling points; a fantastic sized garden with all day sun, ideal for barbeques, summer gatherings and playing with the children.
