This impressive split-level apartment, occupying the first and second floor of this handsome Victorian semi-detached house, certainly has the wow factor. With four double bedrooms, three bathrooms and a open-plan kitchen/dining/living room and a private roof terrace, this property is a must see.

Measuring nearly 1800 sq ft over two floors, this property feels bright and spacious throughout. On the first floor there are four double bedrooms with two en suite bathrooms and a separate family bathroom. To the front is a large reception room featuring high ceilings and a substantial bay window, this room could easily be converted into a further bedroom should you desire.

The top floor continues to impress with a magnificent entertaining and living space, with all areas enjoying bi-fold doors surrounding the sunny roof terrace. The modern kitchen is well designed with a fantastic bi-fold window, creating a perfect bar. The property comes with a share of the freehold and long lease.

Cresswell Road is a well regarded residential road in East Twickenham, within 0.3 miles of the River Thames and Richmond Bridge. Across the bridge is Richmond Town centre with its shops, restaurants and mainline train station with fast links into London Waterloo. Marble Hill Park and Cambridge Gardens are also close by.
