The ground floor boasts a stunning bay-fronted reception room with high ceilings and classic Victorian detailing, creating an inviting and light-filled living space. Both reception rooms feature exquisite reclaimed French oak flooring, adding warmth and authenticity to the home's timeless charm. The second generous reception room, perfect as a formal dining area, leads seamlessly into a large kitchen with an additional dining space, complete with solid flagstone flooring, ideal for modern family living and entertaining. Doors then open onto a mature private garden, offering a peaceful and beautifully landscaped outdoor retreat. The first floor comprises two impressive double bedrooms, both enhanced by traditional features, along with a stylish family bathroom. The top floor, formed from a thoughtful loft conversion, provides a versatile third bedroom with exciting potential to personalise the space further, offering the opportunity to add your own finish or create an en suite bathroom to suit your needs.
