

Heathcote Road, TW1

£830,000

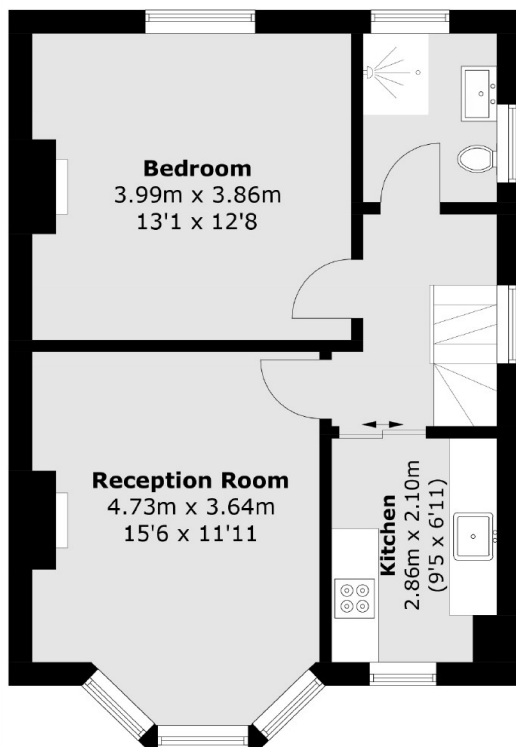

An impressive three bedroom Victorian split-level maisonette set within a handsome detached period property. This bright and spacious home boasts a large south-facing private garden with a stylish modern garden room perfect as a studio, office or entertaining space. Additional highlights include off-street parking, a long lease and the advantage of no onward chain.

Heathcote Road is a highly desirable residential street, ideal for families seeking excellent school catchments and convenient transport links. St Margarets Station is just 0.4 miles away, while Richmond offering the District Line and Overground services to Waterloo is only 0.9 miles away. The property also benefits from close proximity to the River Thames and the vibrant amenities of both St Margarets and Richmond. Moor Mead Park and Marble Hill Park are also close by.
