Lovelace Road, KT6

On the ground floor is a grand entrance hall with period panelling and soaring ceilings immediately setting the tone for the refined interiors beyond. The home exudes character throughout, with elegant reception rooms featuring ornate fireplaces, restored hardwood floors, and beautifully crafted woodwork, all immaculately maintained to preserve its Edwardian heritage.

At the rear of the property, a bespoke glass conservatory floods the space with natural light and frames the views over the secluded, landscaped garden designed for both entertaining and relaxation. A driveway and double garage provide secure off-street parking. Upstairs the master suite is a sanctuary of style and comfort, complete with a luxurious en suite bathroom, walk-in wardrobe, and a striking original fireplace, blending charm with comfort. The second double bedroom also enjoys its own en suite, while two further double bedrooms on the upper floor are served by a family bathroom.

Impeccably presented throughout, this exceptional home combines architectural beauty, modern luxury, and a prestigious location, offering an unparalleled lifestyle in one of Surbiton's most sought-after addresses.
