Chadwick Close, TW11

Upon entering the property you have a cloakroom and to the front of the house a stylish modern kitchen. There is herringbone flooring throughout the ground floor and a large double reception room full of natural light. The perfect space for entertaining.

The current owners have reconfigured the first floor to create two large double bedrooms both with en suit bathrooms.

The rear garden is easily maintained as most of it is paved and has mature shrubs. There is also easy parking on the road outside and a garage.
