Situated along the banks of the River Thames this two bedroom apartment has parking, a private South West facing balcony and luscious gardens to enjoy.

Located on the first floor this apartment is well presented throughout. The rooms are all of a large proportion and natural light pours through every window. The wide, spacious inviting hallway leads you to all rooms in the apartment and has plenty of storage space. The reception room offers ample space to relax and dine with a serving hatch through to the kitchen. From the reception there is access to the balcony; a lovely place to enjoy a morning coffee with a view onto the river.

There are two large double bedrooms, both with generous built in storage, and two bathrooms: one family, the other a cloakroom/WC. The property further benefits from allocated parking in the underground car park, a locked storage room for bikes, a dedicated patio BBQ area in the garden and the possibility to store a kayak/paddleboard in the grounds.
