Field Lane, TW11

The luxury finishes and attention to detail that the current owners have designed to a high specification will be immediately obvious from the moment you enter the house. To the front there is a formal reception room with a period style feature fireplace that has bespoke built in shelves and storage on either side.

The rear of the property continues to impress; the extension to the rear has created a second reception room, a dining area leading onto the kitchen. The layout has been superbly thought out creating a sociable family living area, this entire space measures 39ft and offers a beautiful outlook onto the garden and continues to flood with natural light. The slick finish and unique combination of wooden panelling are a luxurious and modern twist to the kitchen.

On the first floor there are two generous double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes and a four piece family bathroom with a double basin. The second floor has the last double bedroom with plenty of eaves storage.
