Walpole Road, TW11

Enter into the hallway with solid oak flooring that continues through to the double reception room. This room is spacious and light with a period fireplace, cast iron radiators, high ceilings, picture rails and plantation shutters. These two rooms flow nicely onto the kitchen.

The kitchen extension provides more living space, ideal for families and entertaining. The modern shaker style units and wooden work surface give a country farm house finish with a butler sink, space for a range oven and integrated dishwasher. The sliding doors lead onto the secluded garden.

Over the first and second floors there are four double bedrooms. Two on the first floor, both with fitted storage and a large, modern family bathroom and two to the top floor with eaves storage and a separate shower room.
