Old Bakery Mews, KT1

A contemporary townhouse located in the heart of Hampton Wick that has a open plan kitchen/diner, an additional reception room, a large roof terrace as well as two bathrooms and a garage.

The ground floor comprises a bedroom and utility room, both with underfloor heating. Here, you also have your own private garage with electrically operated doors.

Entering the first floor there are two further bedrooms, the master with an en-suite. The L-shaped kitchen/diner has an impressive range of integrated appliances including a Quooker fusion tap, there is also a Velfac sliding door leading to a private terrace.

The second floor is a bright and modern double aspect reception room which leads onto another private terrace. With details such as LED low power consumption downlighters to the main rooms, all aspects have been carefully refined to a high standard.

This charming development is on a wonderful mews set back from Hampton Wick High Street and the River Thames. Benefit from the market town of Kingston upon Thames and its beautiful surroundings including Bushy Park.
