Fordbridge Road, TW16

As you enter this impressive family home, you will notice the finish and architectural design that sets this property apart from the rest. On the ground floor there is a large reception room which leads onto two double bedrooms.

Furthermore you are then led onto an stunning kitchen diner that is just perfect for entertaining your friends and family. Directly from the kitchen there are bi-folding doors and an expansive roof terrace looking out onto a large private landscaped garden, big enough for your dog to roam free or for you to enjoy those summer barbeques in!

On the second floor there are three further bedrooms, a family bathroom and a superb master bedroom boasting an en suite and dressing room, not to mention a balcony overlooking the Sunbury Weir. Early viewings are recommended to avoid disappointment!
