

Chesson Road, W14

This beautifully presented four bedroom house is based on a tree-lined street in West Kensington. The property has a large kitchen dining area leading onto south facing private garden, with three ensuite bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Chesson Road is just off North End Road and is very close to West Brompton Underground. The closest superstore is Tesco's on the North End Road and there are many bus routes on the North End Road that lead into the city.
