Campbell Road, TW2

£775,000

A charming period family home in this highly sought after road.

This property is beautifully presented throughout and benefits from a front reception room, separate dining room with French doors onto the pretty garden and a stunning kitchen onto a utility room. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The property boasts original features including original flooring and fireplaces and has potential to rear extend (subject to planning permission). There is also huge potential from additional land at the back which can be merged into one large garden.

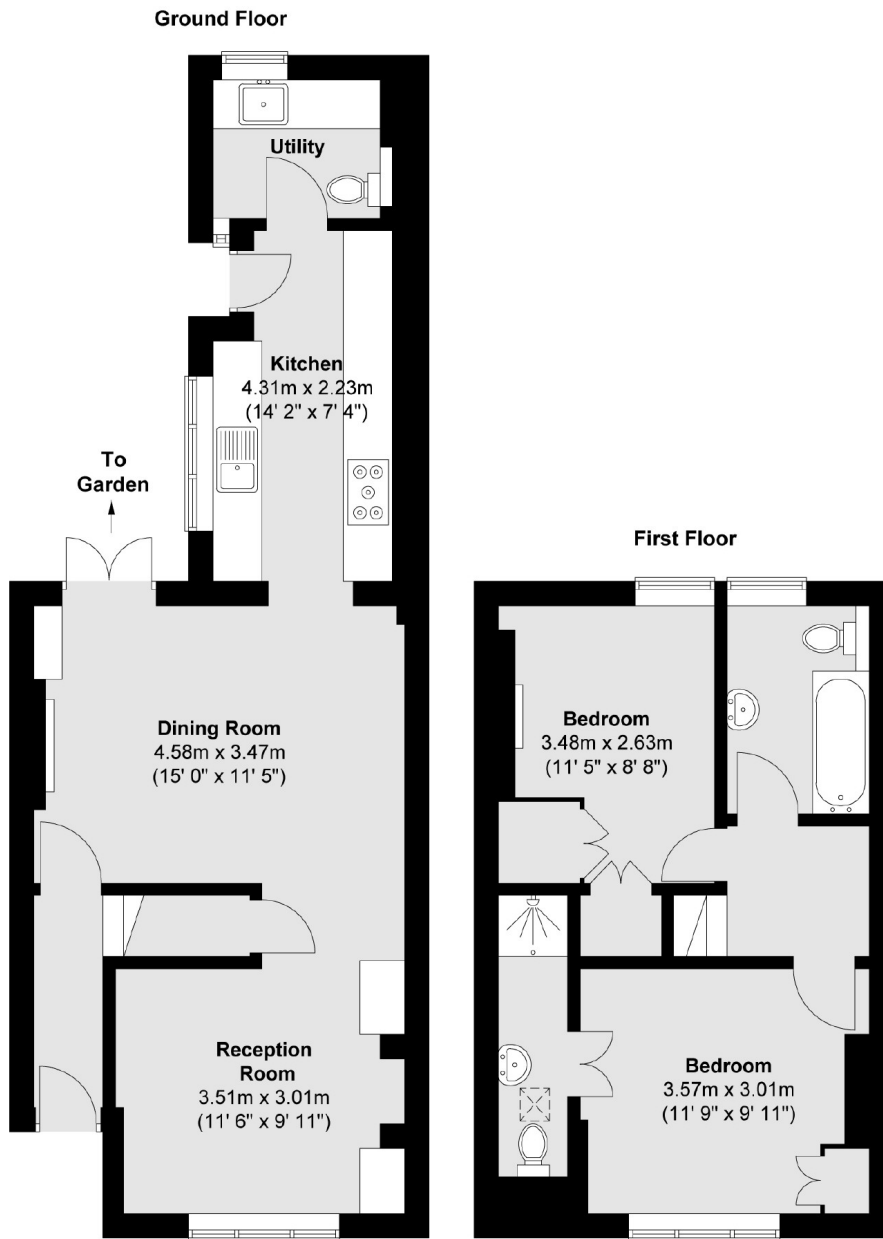

Campbell Road is one of Twickenham's most sought after roads situated within easy reach of the town centre and both Twickenham and Strawberry Hill train stations. The property is also in the catchment area for several outstanding Ofsted rated schools.
