The ground floor consists of a double reception room- the front half complete with a bay window, high ceilings with coving throughout and an attractive fireplace. A further reception area offers a quiet sitting room currently being used as a home library. To the rear the house opens out into a fabulous entertaining space/family room, having been extended to the side and rear, and with plenty of light coming in through floor to ceiling sliding doors. There is further access on the ground floor to a separate utility room, WC and large cellar.

Upstairs, six double bedrooms split over the top two floors offer plenty of living space. The master bedroom has bespoke fitted wardrobes and en suite bathroom. Particularly of note is the 20 foot long bedroom to the rear of the second floor, which offers a perfect home office or sixth bedroom, with views over the Hogarth Club behind.

The garden, which is one of the widest on the road, has been well maintained and provides a mixture of decking and lawn with plenty of space to sit outside and entertain.
