

The Creek, TW16
£685,000

Waterview

A charming detached three bedroom bungalow set overlooking this picturesque backwater of The Thames with pretty garden and private mooring.

The Creek is a quiet cul-de-sac road located off Fordbridge Road next to the village of Sunbury-upon-Thames.

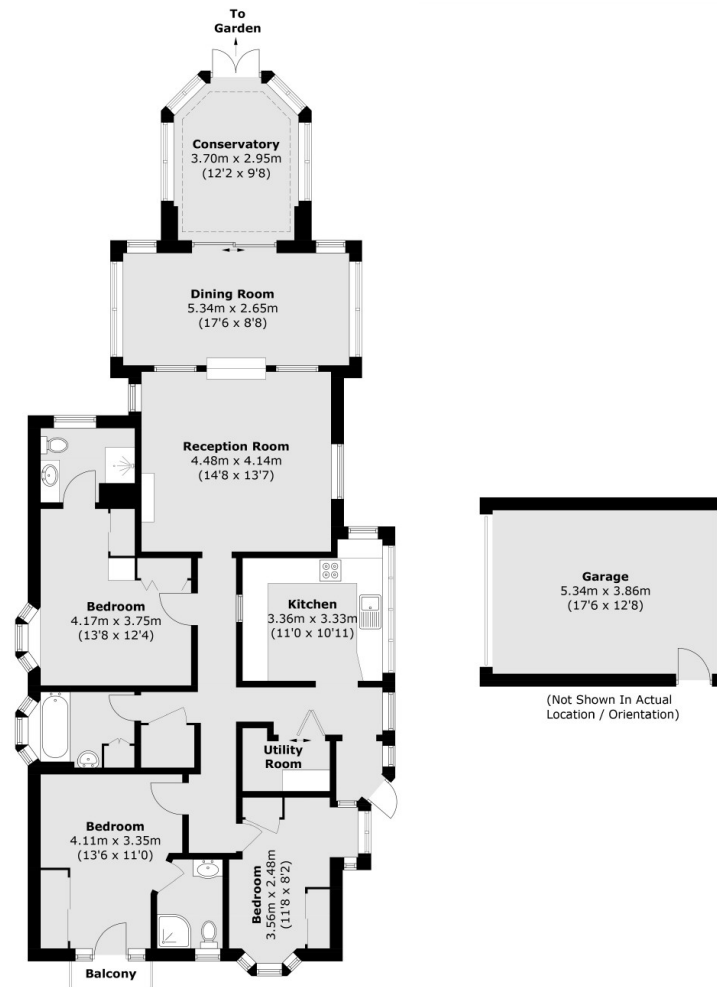

Accommodation is made up of a double reception room with dining area which in turn leads into a conservatory overlooking the garden and river. There is a country style kitchen with separate utility room. Two generous double bedrooms have en-suite and shower rooms with a third single bedroom and family bathroom. To the front the driveway has parking for several cars and there is a large detached double garage. To the riverside the pretty south east facing garden leads to a 35ft private mooring. The house sale is subject to probate and offered with no onward chain.
