

Park Avenue, TW19

£1,300,000

Waterview

A beautiful, family home set within extensive pretty gardens overlooking The Thames with a 50ft private mooring.

Park Avenue is an exclusive private road in Wraysbury Village within a short walk of Sunnymeads Station.

Accommodation is made up of entrance hall leading to a spacious living room with solid oak flooring, fireplace and doors to a full width, river facing terrace and covered verandah. There is a large family dining room with double doors to the terrace. The stylish, modern integrated kitchen has a breakfast bar, family dining area and side door to access the terrace. There are two generous bedrooms on the ground floor, a further reception room/t.v.snug, modern shower room and utility room.

On the first floor there is an impressive master suite with access to a river facing roof terrace and en-suite, further double bedroom with access to a large loft/eaves space that could be converted and a four piece family bathroom. To the front there are electric gates to a driveway with parking for several cars, a garage and a large lawned garden with pretty summer house, workshop and storeroom. To the rear a full width terrace, perfect for entertaining overlooks the 100ft west facing garden with an outdoor kitchen with pizza oven and barbeque area and a riverside patio area overlooking this picturesque stretch of The Thames and 50ft private mooring.
