Waterview

A beautiful, four double bedroom riverside home set overlooking The Thames with stylish interiors, manicured gardens and 55ft mooring.

Thames Side runs parallel to The Thames between Laleham Village and Staines.

Accommodation is made up of entrance hall, with a feature turned staircase and galleried landing. There is an impressive 33' open plan kitchen and breakfast bar onto family dining area with doors to garden terrace. The further river room has bi-fold doors to garden and terrace. The third spacious reception room has solid wood flooring and feature fireplace. Also on the ground floor is a home office with doors to garden, W.C., and utility room.

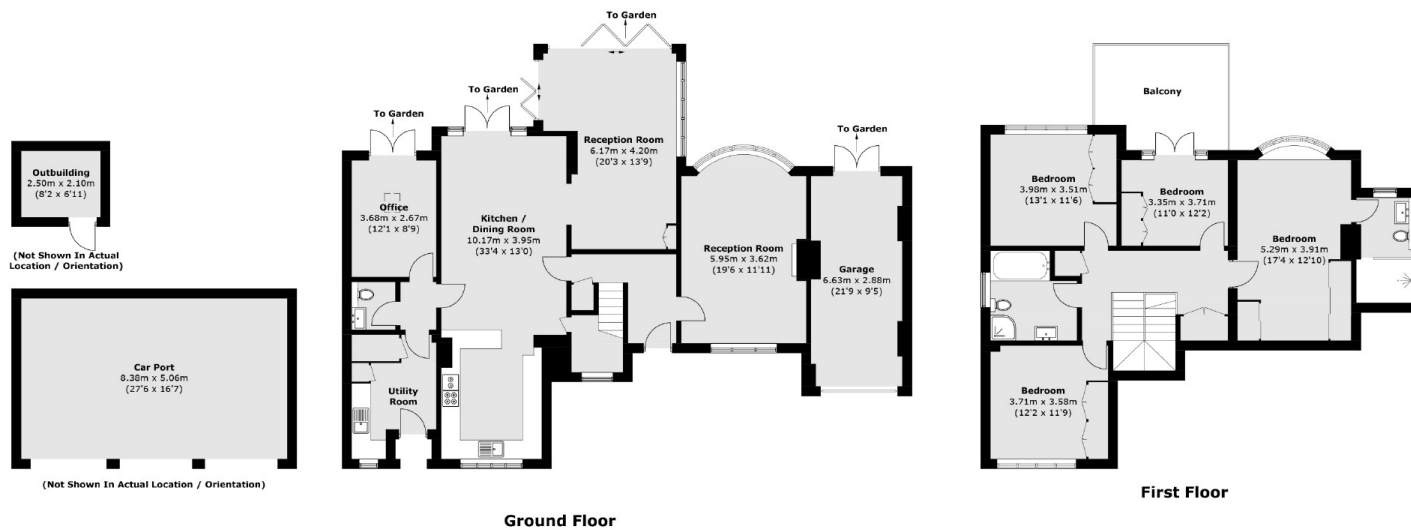

On the first floor the large principal suite overlooks the river and has a high quality en-suite and dressing area. There are three further double bedrooms, one with access to a large river facing balcony and a family bathroom. To the front of the house the paved driveway has parking for several cars and a large garage with through access to garden and a car port for three cars. To the rear, the pretty south west facing garden has an entertaining terrace and barbeque area, an enclosed hot tub and lawned garden with gate to riverside towpath and a 55ft Riparian mooring.
