Kenwyn Road, SW4

A unique space recently refurbished to offer a country kitchen with a range cooker and Belfast sink, along with one double bedroom, a large kitchen with dining space, a spacious and artistic double reception and a bathroom with a freestanding Victorian-style bath.

There is also a small garden with an outside table and barbecue for the summer.

The property offers a quiet haven in trendy Clapham, while remaining central for shops, restaurants, theatre, cinema, two underground and one overground train stations and many frequent buses to all over London.
