Milton Road, SW19

A four bedroom, two bathroom Victorian end of terrace house, presented in super order. The house has a landscaped rear garden, a large through reception room and an open kitchen/ breakfast room.

The ground floor has a large open, double reception room with a beautiful fireplace. There is an extended kitchen to the rear, with incredible Velux windows, a kitchen island and French doors to the landscaped rear garden.

The first floor has two large double bedrooms with built in wardrobes, with a large family bathroom to the rear of the house. The loft has been cleverly converted to offer two further bedrooms, both with built in wardrobes. Between the two bedrooms there is a beautiful shower room, to service both bedrooms.

The house is a superb example of a Victorian end of terrace house, located in a great location for schools and amongst wonderful neighbours.

In the much sought after Poets area, with close proximity to fantastic local schools. There's great transport links, with the Thameslink, Wimbledon rail and District line and Northern line stations.
