This stunning maisonette offers 855 square feet of living space brimming with period features and charm. The property has a private entrance and comprises two double bedrooms, a stylish bathroom, a modern kitchen and a spacious reception with exposed brickwork, period fireplaces, sash windows and hardwood floor. Buyers looking for a modern and tastefully decorated home will want to view this flat. The reception and main bedroom have views over Landseer Gardens on a pedestrianised section of the road and the flat comes with a share of freehold that's divided between just two owners.

The flat benefits from good transport links, with Upper Holloway overground station and Archway underground station (Northern Line) within easy walking distance. Nearby Holloway Road also provides access to good bus routes and a wealth of local shops, cafes, bars, restaurants and other amenities.
