37, Jury Street, Warwick

Price Guide
£1,100,000

Located in the heart of Warwick, this historic Grade II listed property offers a home and a lifestyle. With its character features and generous living space, this property is perfect for those looking for a blend of history and comfort. Dating back to circa 1560, the accommodation briefly affords an entrance vestibule, reception hall, cellarge, drawing room, dining room, and a spacious breakfast kitchen, study to half landing, master bedroom with en-suite bathroom, three further double bedrooms, dressing room, attic bedroom and a family bathroom. To the outside, there is a mature good-sized walled garden, which provides access to the rare benefit of two off-road parking spaces. The property is being marketed with no upward chain.

Location

37 Jury Street stands adjacent to the ancient Eastgate which provided the approach to the historic town centre. A wide variety of shops and restaurants are nearby as is the medieval Warwick Castle and grounds. Warwick enjoys various shopping, cafés, restaurants, and recreational facilities. Commuting is easy, with regular trains from nearby Warwick Station, Warwick Parkway and Leamington Spa to London Marylebone (fastest trains under 90 minutes) and Birmingham. The motorway network is easily accessible with junctions 13/14/15 of the M40 all within a short drive of the town, giving access to Birmingham and the north and London and the south. There are a variety of state and private schools to suit all requirements, including Warwick Preparatory and Boys School and The King's High School, all of which are within close proximity.
