

Forming part of a small and select development of barns converted in the early 90s, this greatly improved and well appointed character home is ideally positioned on the edge of Norton Lindsey, a desirable village situated between the bustling towns of Warwick and Henley-in-Arden, and it is well-placed to take advantage of the numerous amenities available nearby. The accommodation, in brief, comprises: a welcoming reception hall and cloakroom, study, living room, dining area, bespoke breakfast kitchen, TV/family room, with bedroom/study over, master bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe and spacious en-suite shower, two further bedrooms, family bathroom, a delightful hard-landscaped garden, driveway, and a former garage store. The energy rating is D.

Location

Norton Lindsey is a desirable village that boasts an infant and primary school, a public house called the New Inn, and a community store. A village hall, a cricket club, and a church. There is convenient access to the M40 motorway and the centres of Warwick, Leamington Spa, Coventry, Henley-in-Arden, Solihull, Stratford-upon-Avon, and Birmingham. Furthermore, Warwick Parkway Station provides access to London and Birmingham via the Chiltern Line, while the N.E.C. and Birmingham International Airport are also within easy driving distance.
