Location

Pipers Bath is located on the eastern outskirts of the village and lies on the Lighthorne Road and just off the Fosse Way. It occupies an elevated position and comprises a group of three former farm worker's cottages accessed via an unmade and private road/drive. As you can see with the neighbouring property, the house has excellent potential for enlargement subject to the relevant planning consents.

Moreton Morrell is situated about seven miles to the South of Warwick. It has a church, primary school and a charming, real tennis court club. The village is highly regarded and is well-placed for access to Royal Leamington Spa, Warwick and Stratford-upon-Avon. Wellesbourne is a substantial village, about three miles distant, where there are excellent local amenities including local shops and a Medical Centre.
