Kitchen/Dining Room With Double Doors To Garden - Utility Room - Cloakroom - Large Living Room With Exposed Beams & Fitted Wood Burning Stove - First Floor Landing - Bedroom With En-Suite - Two Further Bedrooms - Family Bathroom - Pretty Front Garden With Brick Paved Patio & 'Hidden' Shed

This charming, unlisted stable block conversion has been tastefully renovated in recent years ensuring its period charm remains untouched whilst offering a slick, modern finish throughout.

The property is tucked away in an idyllic setting on the edge of Southborough Common. Parking is available for residents in Modest Corner, with the property a short walk along the bridle path yet hidden from sight.

Double gates open to the garden with its wealth of colour and leafy backdrop enticing you in. A solid stable door opens into the light filled spacious kitchen/dining room with its practical tiled flooring. The kitchen is modern and has been replaced recently offering endless cabinets and a good amount of work surfaces. The kitchen is equipped with an integrated oven and grill, five ring gas hob with extractor and integrated dishwasher and washing machine under sink unit. A separate island caters for casual dining or food preparation whilst a generous dining area allows for day-to-day dining with views onto the garden through its glass paned double doors. Beyond the kitchen is the utility room with further work surfaces, storage and plumbing for additional appliances. A door from the utility takes you to a useful ground floor cloakroom.

The well-proportioned living room has a charming feel throughout with its exposed timber beams, exposed brick rear wall and log burning stove. It offers a cosy winter retreat that during the day, is full of light through its front window, letter box windows at the rear, and double doors that open onto the colourful garden. The living room has light coloured carpets, fitted log storage and a large space under the stairs that the current owners have transformed into an additional dining area.

An open staircase with full height ceiling gives a grand feel as it leads you to the spacious first floor landing. There is a dual aspect, ensuite bedroom with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and leafy woodland views. It offers generous space for a large double bed along with bedroom furniture. The en-suite has been upgraded recently, offering a large walk-in shower, twin wash basins (with storage beneath), WC and chrome heated towel rail. Its vaulted ceiling and sky light again maximise the sense of space and light. There are two further double bedrooms on the first floor, both similar in size and both offering pleasant views and with space for bedroom furniture. A recently fitted family bathroom completes the first floor. It has a p-shaped bath with rain-head shower over, WC, wash basin and chrome heated towel rail.

Outside the gardens position maximises its prime rural spot with the Ancient woodlands sitting behind that form part of the Southborough Common. The garden is predominantly lawn and is surrounded with colourful flowerbeds and raised vegetable patches. A brick paved patio is accessed from the living room and offers a sunny spot for dining. To the side of the house is a useful garden shed with access to the rear, decking, a way from view.
