what we love

We designed the house with a family home in mind, focusing on personal rather than investment value. Every detail was meticulously considered, starting with stripping it back to brick, installing new floors, supporting beams, and plastering. We added space by extending the kitchen side return and the loft, which resulted in two additional bedrooms. The layout was redesigned to suit a modern lifestyle, incorporating a separate utility room and open-plan living areas. We replaced old lead piping with new water pipes, including from the mains, and upgraded utilities, installing underfloor heating, new boilers, and wiring where necessary. Gas and electric meters, as well as fuse boxes, were replaced, and the electrical fit-out included additional plug sockets in convenient spots, such as inside cupboards. During the renovation, we installed wood floors, tiles, and carpeting, and replaced the front door and patio doors to enhance natural light. The windows were updated with traditional sash wooden windows at the front to fit the area's character, while sleek metal-framed windows were used at the back, alongside three roof lights in the loft and two in the kitchen to maximize light. The living room was equipped with a gas fireplace, and we installed new doors, including pocket doors where necessary to optimize space. Throughout the home, new shutters and blinds were added. We increased the size of the family bathroom to include both a standalone bath and a separate shower. The principal bedroom features an ensuite with a waterfall shower and a dressing area. The loft was further enhanced with additional rooms, one of which has its own ensuite. Eaves storage was added both at the front and rear. Internally, all doors were replaced, along with new front and patio doors. Custom fitted cupboards and shelves were incorporated in the principal bedroom, loft rooms, utility room, and living room. The kitchen was redesigned with top-of-the-line appliances, including a Miele hob, double farmhouse sinks, Miele dishwasher, two Neff ovens (one steam), Neff American fridge freezer, a wine fridge, and a spice drawer. The utility room includes a Samsung washer and dryer, both plumbed in. Finally, we transformed both the front and rear gardens, working with a landscaper for the backyard to create beautiful outdoor spaces.
