Offers Over £285,000

This three-bedroom semi-detached house is for sale in a sought-after part of Ashton-under-Lyne, offering convenient access to the town centre and local transport links.

The property includes two reception rooms, both featuring large windows, fireplaces and wood floors. One reception room benefits from views over the garden, providing a pleasant outlook and a flexible space for everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen enjoys good natural light, with direct access towards the rear of the property.

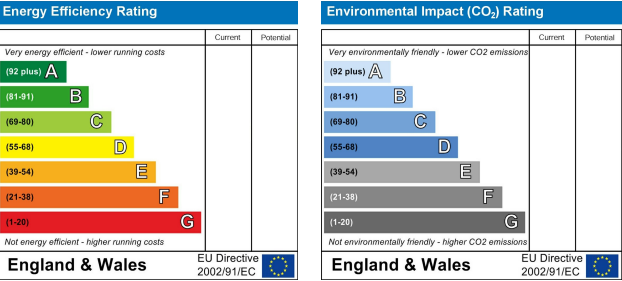

There are three bedrooms: a double master bedroom with an original window allowing in natural light, a further double bedroom with wooden floors and natural light, and a single bedroom with original windows. The house combines original features with a modern twist, creating a practical home suited to first-time buyers and families. An outhouse is currently used as a utility room, offering additional functional space, and there is a garden as well as further outbuildings. The property falls within Council Tax Band C.

The location provides easy access to Ashton-under-Lyne town centre, with its range of shops, supermarkets, cafés and leisure facilities. Tameside College is close by, making this a convenient option for those studying or working there.

Public transport links are strong, with Ashton-under-Lyne railway station offering regular services to Manchester Piccadilly, typically taking around 10–15 minutes, as well as connections towards Huddersfield and other destinations. Local bus routes serve the surrounding area and provide onward travel throughout Tameside and Greater Manchester. The Metrolink tram stop in Ashton-under-Lyne links into Manchester city centre and other key locations across the network.
