Ideal as a first time purchase or for those looking to downsize from a larger property, this pretty cottage is certain to appeal. Sitting in a quiet backwater conveniently close to Clevedon Town Centre, the pleasing approach and entrance leads to deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over two floors. Beginning with a light and airy open plan living/dining area, this generous space provides ample room for relaxing around the fireside and dining with family and friends. The kitchen has been beautifully fitted to compliment the character of the property with wooden units and ample storage and working space. To the first floor, there are two double size bedrooms and a delightful contemporary bathroom. Throughout, there is a cosy and welcoming feel enhanced by the charming features. Outside, there is a pretty courtyard style garden to the rear. Bound by natural stone walls, it provides the ideal spot to enjoy some summer sun and light gardening! Lime Kiln Lane is ideally situated for taking a short stroll to the shops in the town centre aswell as a host of other amenities including medical centre, library and the historic Curzon Cinema. A truly wonderful home.
