Nestled in the picturesque Swiss Valley of Clevedon, this period terraced home awaits a new owner to breathe life into its already charming character. The property presents a sense of history and nostalgia whilst offering a fabulous opportunity for modernisation and personalisation. The pretty pavement edge cottage leads directly into an entrance hall which gives access to the principal ground floor accommodation and to the rear garden. A welcoming and cosy lounge with feature fireplace provides an ideal space for relaxation and socializing. In addition, there is a modern kitchen with ample preparation and cooking space which could be redesigned to further reflect contemporary tastes and preferences. To the first floor, there are two bedrooms and a further versatile study/storage room, ideal for those requiring extra storage space or those working from home. Often unusual for properties of this age and style, the bathroom is already positioned upstairs and whilst in need of updating, is well proportioned and currently houses a white suite. The property's exterior features a rear garden, offering a private outdoor space for al fresco dining or gardening enthusiasts. The garden, though requiring attention, has the potential to be transformed into a tranquil oasis with a delightful wooded backdrop. The location of the cottage is another highlight. The area is renowned for its scenic walks and close proximity to picturesque woodland. Additionally, the cottage is within walking distance of local amenities, including shops, schools, and public transportation, ensuring convenience and accessibility.

Overall, this terraced cottage presents a unique opportunity for those seeking a characterful property with the potential for modernisation. With its historic charm, convenient location, and scope for personalisation, this cottage is ready to be transformed into a cherished home.
