Situated in a highly convenient location immediate to Yatton's village centre, this delightful 1930's semi detached house will make an excellent family home. Providing thoughtfully extended accommodation over two levels, the property benefits from a highly flexible layout with ample space for relaxing, entertaining and time well spent with family and friends. The ground floor is particularly versatile and is arranged with a welcoming sitting room to the front and a light and airy living room to the rear with door to the rear garden. There is a generous kitchen/dining room ideal for keen cooks and perfect for family mealtimes and dinner parties and a convenient downstairs cloakroom. This floor is completed by a home office/ useful fourth bedroom. To the first floor, there are three well proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. Throughout, the property enjoys excellent presentation with some charming original features such as the pretty tiled fireplaces, yet there is still scope to add one's own personal design tastes. Outside, there is off street parking to the front for multiple vehicles together with additional parking for approximately one to two cars via a shared lane to the rear. There is also a predominantly south facing low maintenance garden with level lawn, patio and additional storage. The village of Yatton enjoys a lovely community feel and is well served with local shops, schools and a mainline railway station. For leisure, Cadbury Country Club is within a short distance and there are picturesque walks at Cadbury Hill

Nature Reserve. Quite simply, a great family home which must be viewed!
